BIOGRAPHY

Nick J. Thyson was born on January 3, 1996 in Antwerp, Belgium.

Nick's father's Jewish and his mother's side has an Algerian roots. He has one younger sister Steffi, who's a graduate in criminal law. But it is safe to say that creativity runs in Nick's family. He got to get a glimpse of the entertainment business from a young age, due to the actors and singers in his family. Nick's native language is Dutch, but he has no trouble with accents like Flemish or Dutch accents. This is why he often gets booked for Dutch spoken productions.

Nick has been active as an actor in theatre since 2006. After getting completely hooked on bringing stories to life he decided to take on roles for short movies, commercials and television series. But he will never give up on theatre because that is where he feels at his best.

Throughout the years Nick has always looked for new ways to improve himself. Through studies, for example 'Arts and Economics', 'Advertisement', workshops and even webinars. As in 2013 he accomplished education in acting with experience in Commedia Dell'arte cause of the courses he took from Belgian actor Peter Michel.

In 2015 Nick wanted to start a company of his own. Veryson Media, an agency focused on media and filming, was born. To this day, Nick is very active with this company. During 2019 Nick went teaching informatics and graphic design at a Beauty & Lifestyle Academy, run by Lesley-Ann Poppe and Kevin Lebreton.

Since 2021 Nick got a job as unit production manager at Welibach Pictures, a film production company of R. Kan Albay. Nowadays Nick and R. Kan are often collaborating with their companies.
